Italian War Pictures To Be Shown at Star

Interesting and Varied Programs Being Presented at Local Theaters.

"For Italy's Glory," a thrilling film production of phases of the Austro-Italian war in three reels will be shown Monday at the Star theater. The scenes are authentic, having been filmed on battle fronts and near scenes of action. Several other reels of splendid photoplays will also be shown.

Rapid progress is being made on the production of the strong Ince-Triangle sociological drama, in which Mary Boland, erstwhile leading woman for John Drew, and William Mack, the noted actor, actor and producer are being co-starred.

Beautiful Edna Payne and popular Robert Myles are the stars seen today in a special Mutual photoplay "The Brand Blotters" at the Orpheum theater.

George Ovey one of the world's funniest comedians, appears also in "Making Matters Worse," a very laughable Cub comedy, and the splendid bill closes with "The Family Doctor," a beautiful Mutual drama filled with thrills, and sublimely pictured.

The play that is being presented at

Two matinees are given this afternoon and three performances will be given this evening. Linton DeWolfe carries his own special scenery and electrical effects for this production. Some very good photoplays are offered for today, one feature being especially fine. Namely, "On Bitter Creek," a three-act Lubin drama with Edgar Jones and Justina Huff as the principals. It is a play chock full of thrills and excitement.

"When California Was Wild" will be a Selig Jungle-Zoo wild animal drama in one reel. Fritz Brunette again enacts a difficult role with wild beasts. Bears, wolves, and mountain lions are logically introduced into this realistic representation of the perils encountered by the sturdy pioneers, during the early days of California. William Robert Daly has the production in charge.

"The Wolf," a drama of thrills, sensations and romance is the feature picture offering at Robinson Grand today. Eugene Walter, of "Paid in Full," fame is responsible for this remarkable and unusual story of the northwest. This really magnificent photo drama is produced in six telling acts and is presented by an all star cast of players who are seldom seen in the same production.

Monday the Charles Frohman company will present John Barrymore in the celebrated adventurous romance, "The Dictator." Mr. Barrymore, whose talents as a comedian have been often demonstrated on the screen, adds another howling triumph to his list of laugh-successes in this clever comedy by Richard Harding Davis.

Production of the stupendous war spectacle, in which Frank Keoman will be starred by Producer Thomas N. Ince, the Triangle, is in full swing at the Inceville studios of the New York Motion Picture Corporation. Director Reginald Barker who is filming the subject, has chosen first to produce the interiors and consequently a small army of extra "extras" is engaged in the canyon plant.

"Shadows from the Past," four-part Edison masterpiece, is the Bijou's feature offering today. Marc McDermott and Mable Trunelle are the principals, which fact insures a finished drama. This picture is a companion picture to "The Stinging," recently shown at the Bijou, and pronounced by all who saw it to be one of the best pictures ever shown in Clarkburg. Its remarkable strength of heart appeal, its perfect cast, its high artistry of its presentation, and the power of a worthy message skillfully plotted, give great impetus to this feature of distinction. Two other reels, a drama and a comedy are shown. "Charley Chaplin at the Elkins Fair," is an added attraction.

Biliousness and Constipation.

It is certainly surprising that any woman will endure the miserable feelings caused by biliousness and constipation, when relief is so easily had and at so little expense. Mrs. Chas. Peck, Gates, N. Y., writes: "About a year ago I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they cured me of biliousness and constipation." Obtainable everywhere.

Monday, "The Money Master," a fine act, Kleno-Edison feature, with Frank Sheridan, Paul McAllister, Miss Anna Meredith and Miss Anna Marinoff as principals, will be the big attraction at the Bijou. It is founded on Cleveland Moffitt's celebrated stage success, "The Battle," a play that ran 360 consecutive nights in New York city. It is a thrilling picture illustrating scenes of New York Ghetto.

Orlando Daly, who has been leading man for such stars as Mrs. Patrick Campbell, Mrs. Langtry, May Irwin and Nastimova, has been engaged for an important part in E. H. Sothman's production of "The Two Virtues."

Cyril Harcourt, the author of "A Fair of Silk Stockings," is writing an American comedy.
